

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 23-cv-60002-ALTMAN/Hunt

DANIEL PAUL,

Plaintiff,

v.

SENTINEL PROTECTION, LLC et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER ON DEFAULT FINAL JUDGMENT PROCEDURE

The Plaintiff filed a Motion for Clerk's Entry of Default as to the Defendants [ECF No. 17] which the Clerk granted, see Clerk's Entry of Default [ECF No. 18]. Upon review of the record, it appears that the Defendants have indeed failed to respond to the Complaint or otherwise appear in this action. Therefore, the Court hereby ORDERS AND ADJUDGES that the Plaintiff must file one of the following two responses by March 27, 2023:

(1) Where there is only one Defendant, or where there are multiple Defendants,¹ but no allegations of joint and several liability and no possibility of inconsistent liability between the Defendants, the Plaintiff shall file a motion for default final judgment.

The motion for default final judgment must include affidavits that delineate any sums certain due by the Defendants and any other supporting documentation which might be necessary to determine the Plaintiff's measure of damages. The motion shall also be accompanied by: (1) the affidavit required by the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. app. § 521(b), if applicable; (2) a proposed order; and (3) a proposed final judgment.² In accordance with the CM/ECF Administrative Procedures, the proposed orders shall be submitted to the Court by e-mail in Word format at altman@flsd.uscourts.gov. The Plaintiff shall send a copy of the motion to the Defendants' counsel or to the Defendants if the Defendants do not have counsel. In the certificate of service, the Plaintiff shall note that notice was sent and identify the addresses to which that notice was sent.

If the Defendants fail to move to set aside the Clerk's Default or to respond to the motion for default final judgment within the time permitted by the Rules, default final judgment may be entered, which, simply put, means that the Plaintiff may be able to take the Defendants' property or money, and/or obtain other relief against Defendants.

(2) Where there are multiple Defendants and allegations of joint and several liability, or the possibility of inconsistent liability between the Defendants, the Plaintiff shall file a notice of joint liability. See Frow v. De La Vega, 82 U.S. 552, 554 (1872); 10A CHARLES ALAN WRIGHT AND ARTHUR R. MILLER, FEDERAL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE § 2690 (3d ed. 1998) (citing Frow, 82 U.S. at 554); see also Gulf Coast Fans, Inc. v. Midwest Elecs. Imp., Inc., 740 F.2d 1499, 1512 (11th Cir. 1984).

The notice of joint liability must briefly describe the allegations and advise the Court of the status of the other Defendants' liability. Once liability is resolved as to all of the Defendants, the Plaintiff may move for the entry of default final judgment against the Defendants, as described in (1) above, no later than 14 days after liability is resolved against all Defendants.

² These last two are required by Local Rule 7.1(a)(2). The proposed order shall explain—in detail—why the Plaintiff is entitled to relief. Cf. Out-Grow, LLC v. Miami Mushroom, 2021 WL 2823266, at *3 (S.D. Fla. July 7, 2021) (Altman, J.) (“Conceptually, then, a motion for default judgment is like a reverse motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim.” (quoting Surtain v. Hamlin Terrace Found., 789 F.3d 1239, 1245 (11th Cir. 2015))).

The Plaintiff's failure to file for a motion for default final judgment or notice of joint liability within the specified time will result in a dismissal without prejudice of the Plaintiff's claims against the Defendant(s).

The Clerk of Court is directed to CLOSE this case for administrative purposes pending final default.
